

International Sociological Association

Research Committee 47 - "Social Classes and Social Movements"

May 11-12, 2015 Bucharest Conference

SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

With the Support of the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung Romania

SECTIONS

- Democracy and Europe
- Conservative, populist and far right movements
- A renewal of green movements
- New and old challenges. Youth movements

ARTICLES

eBook with all contributions will be available for the conference.

Selected papers and panels will be submitted for publication in collective volumes (Amsterdam University Press and SAGE Current Sociology Monographs) and in journal special Issues.

Proposals to be sent to:

Ionel N. Sava, Geoffrey Pleyers and the ISA RC 47, with the subject line "ISA47 Bucharest"

insava@sas.unibuc.ro

Geoffrey.Pleyers@uclouvain.be

rc47.isa@gmail.com

The abstract should not exceed 250-300 words. Please include name, title, affiliation, address/contacts.

For indexation, proceedings will be sent to Thomson Reuters Web of Science

SUMMARY

Venue:

University of Bucharest
Sociology Building Panduri

Deadline for abstract submission:

February 25th, 2015

Conference final program:

March 10th 2015

Deadline for article submission:

April 25th, 2015

Participation: Graduate students, PhD candidates, postdocs, independent and affiliated researchers, ngo activists, professors dealing with social and political movements .

Travel and accomodation:

The organizers cover accommodation for all participants.

The international travel is provided on a case-by-case basis, especially for researchers from non-EU countries.

The participants that need travel support are asked to submit a written request.

UNIVERSITY OF BUCHAREST

SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK

Panduri Building (Nicolae Paulescu Street)

<http://www.isarc47.org/> ISA Website

<http://www.unibuc.ro> University Website