

CROP-International Social Science Council (at UNESCO) / University of Bergen
Institute of Labour of the Greek General Confederation of Labour & The Department of Social Administration & Political Science (partner of STYLE project)

PUBLIC EVENT – ROUND TABLE

Vulnerable Children and Youth in the Era of Austerity

Time: 18:00-20:00, Thursday 20th November 2014

Place: Homer-Socrates Hall (10th Floor, Titania Hotel, Athens)

We cordially invite you to participate in the public event – round table co-organized by the above institutions on “Vulnerable Children and Youth in the Era of Austerity. The presentations and discussion can be made either in English or in Greek (there will be simultaneous translation).

Opening remarks

Maria Petmesidou (Democritus University of Thrace)

H.E. the ambassador of Norway to Greece, Sjur Larsen

Session 1: Child poverty

- George Moshos (Greek Ombudsman for Children)

- Enrique Delamonica (UNICEF)

- Katerina Poutou (NGO ‘ARSIS’)

Comments by Alberto D. Cimadamore (scientific director of CROP/ISSC & University of Bergen)

Session 2: Vulnerable youth

- Elias Ioakeimoglou (Labour Institute, Greek General Confederation of Labour)

- Dionissis Gravaris (Institute of Small Enterprises, Greek General Confederation of Small enterprises)

- Dimitris Gartsonis (Municipality of Komotini)

Comments by Jackie O’Reilly (co-ordinator of STYLE-FP7 project, University of Brighton)

Open discussion with audience and panellists

This event is part of the workshop “Child poverty, youth (un)employment, and social inclusion” organised in Athens 19 - 21 November 2014, by CROP, the Institute of Labour, and Democritus University of Thrace and supported by:

